

Science and Decision-Making for a Complex World (SCIL 101)

Course Evaluation Summary

All questions are scored as the average on a 4 point Likert scale.

The Learning Assistant facilitates student learning during recitation class: 3.7

The Learning Assistant facilitates student learning during lecture class: 3.6

The Learning Assistant encouraged development of new viewpoints and appreciations: 3.5

The Learning Assistant explained things well: 3.3

The Learning Assistant encouraged student questions and participation: 3.6

The Learning Assistant gave useful feedback on the module assessments: 3.4

The Learning Assistant gave useful feedback on the final project: 3.3

Positive comments:

“Very organized + handed out feedback consistently which was really helpful”

“He managed to interact with all his students plus knew their names which was incredible”

“Always organized, communicated well, made useful comments and suggestions on all work turned in”

“Very constructive / can make you laugh / knew his stuff”

“He answered questions well and provided nice feedback.”

“He was able to explain things well and teach us proper APA”

“Thank you for all your help, take care :)”

“Tried to give feedback on everything and on time”

“He had good feedback and plenty of it”

“He always knew what he was talking about & had good info”

Negative Comments:

“Explain what people did wrong a little better”

“He graded kind of harshly for it being a 100 level class”

“He could improve on using his position as more strict I guess”

“He can chill w/ the harsh grading, like it’s not that deep sometimes”

